Booksurge Publishing, United States, 2009. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 213 x 137 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Learning. Striving. Picking yourself up when life knocks you down. These are experiences Joe Girard knows about better than anyone, and the subjects Joe explores in this in-depth and uplifting self-help book. From identifying time-wasters, building self confidence, practicing the art of self-discipline, learning how to associate with the right kind of people, and spotting the opportunities available to you, this book takes you through the challenges of working for success and the actual experience of life itself- to show how you make the most of your unlimited potential. Here are just some of the essential how-to s Joe teaches in this book: How to get a handle on your goals, How to make think-pictures and visualize the success you want, How to take risks-the kind that make sense! How to reaffirm, every day, that you are truly #1 and can reach any goal you set, How to recognize new opportunities in your life and make the most of them. At the heart of MASTERING YOUR WAY TO THE TOP are dozens of extraordinary profiles of some of America s top business people who tell where they came from and share their own private rules for success with you. Among these leaders are Richard M. DeVos, who became a billionaire because he cofounded a company called Amway in his garage with his high school friend; Muriel Siebert, who came to New York City from Ohio with Five hundred dollars and now has the largest woman-owned company on the New York Stock Exchange; and pizza king Tom Monaghan, who bought the small pizzeria where he worked and turned it into a billion-dollar chain called Domino s. A man with...
