It was dedicated on the 22d of May, 1908. The occasion, which brought together the school committees, superintendents, and teachers of all the neighboring towns, was made memorable by the presence of Mr. George H. Martin, Secretary of the Massachusetts Board of Education, President Eliot, of Harvard University, Hon. Carroll D. Wright. President of Clark College of Worcester, and Mr. Kenyon L. Butterfield, President of the Massachusetts Agricultural College at Amherst, - all of whom addressed the large audience assembled in the Unitarian church, which, unhappily, was burned in the month of September following. At the request of the School Committee, Mr. James W. Brooks acted as Chairman. The exercises began with singing by the pupils of the school, followed by prayer by the Rev. Mr. Spurr. As President Wright was...
