Now, at last, tis plain That I shall reap the harvest sown so long, And be, as bounteous Nature marked me out And gifted me, the ruling vital soul Of a great kingdom, moulding all within To smoothest order under one control, And making England s name to foreign lands Envied and terrible as e'er of old, When Edwards and when Henries wore the crown. For tis not kings themselves by whom alone Their realms are mighty, but the trenchant will And shaping thought of some victorious subject Fills the wide sphere of empire with renown. The man whose soul is Being s liveliest form And Order s fairest model, sways the rest By the true right...
