Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from Edward Banges the Pilgrim: A Narrative The authentic story of the life of Edward Banges the Pilgrim begins with the arrival of the third expedition to New Plymouth. This expedition was organized and fitted out by Mr. John Pierce and sailed from London with 109 persons about the middle of October, 1622, in the ill-starred ship, the Paragon. Meeting tempestuous weather in the Downs, the Paragon was so much damaged that she was obliged to return to London after fourteen days for extensive repairs. She sailed again December 22d, but encountered such extreme tempestuous weather that, in the middle of February, when about half way across she became dismantled and was finally driven back to Portsmouth, a shattered wreck. Depleted in fortune by the repeated disasters of this expedition, John Pierce sold his interest to the Company and another ship, the Anne, was chartered to transport the sixty people who constituted the final expedition, together with the sixty tons of goods that made up their effects, to the shores of the New World. The Anne,...
