On the 2nd of November Mr. Bright attended a meeting of the Working Men of Dublin, in the Theatre of the Mechanics Institution, James Haughton, Esq. , in the Chair. An address of welcome to Mr. Bright was presented to him, amid loud and general cheering. The address expressed the thanks of the working men of Ireland to Mr. Bright, and stated that the Irish people had no hope of relief from an English House of Commons as at present constituted, Mr. Bright, in acknowledging the address, said: -- When I came to your city I was asked if I would attend a public meeting on the question of Parliamentary Reform. I answered that I was not in good order for much speaking, for I have suffered, as I am afraid you will find before I come to the end of my speech, from much cold...
