Blume, 2014. Encuadernación de tapa dura. Book Condition: Nuevo. 1ª Edición. Restos editoriales. 22 x 22 cms. 144 pags. Una guía de ganchillo repleta de métodos fáciles de seguir y de labores recién salidas del horno de las diseñadoras preferidas de Mollie hace., como Emma Lamb o Anita Mundt. 15 proyectos acompañados de sabios consejos avalados por años de experiencia y útiles anécdotas sobre ganchillo, desde cojines y flores hasta tapetes y cobertores. Las manualidades son más que una afición: están presentes en todo lo que hacemos. A través de las páginas de este libro le desafiamos a que renueve su hogar aportándole un toque de «abuela chic». El ganchillo, con su aspecto un poco retro y económico, es muy representativo del moderno estilo casero y manual que gusta tanto a la gente creativa. Se puede remover cielo y tierra para buscar esa colcha de la abuela con el aspecto perfecto, o se puede animar uno a aprender esta placentera y adictiva técnica y confeccionarla uno mismo. Elegir el patrón y el hilo es tan divertido como acomodarse delante del televisor para disfrutar de un momento íntimo de la manualidad. Y qué decir de la emoción de hacer algo bello de lo que siempre se estará orgulloso? Todos sabemos que es un sentimiento insuperable.
