The inscriptions indicate the religious changes of the time. The Muhammadan profession of faith and the Four Khalifs and their virtues have vanished, and in their place appears the new Ilahi formula, t-J God is most great: glorified be his glory. This formula either occupies the whole of the obverse, leaving the reverse for the Persian month and Ilahi year; or tUl appears on the obverse, and J and the Hah) year on the reverse. The Emperor s name does not appear upon the Ilahi currency; but it has been pointed out that JJI not only means God is most great, but also may be interpreted Akbar is God and the suggestion has been made that the Emperor played upon the double meaning. If he did so, the levity was wholly out of keeping with his character and...
