CreateSpace Independent Publishing Platform. Paperback. Book Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. Paperback. 138 pages. Dimensions: 8.5in. x 5.5in. x 0.3in. Ethan has been known to get into trouble. First he gets kidnapped by a group of zombie-like renegades, then he finds out his girlfriend is part of a terror organisation, and now his mother has been kidnapped by the government. And thats just the start of his problems. Follow him, and the cast of desperate characters: his sister Emma who always falls the wrong guy; thug Disco who has mommy issues; terror leader Rip who has explosive plans; and others, as they navigate through the urban darkness, just trying to survive. Urban Darkness is the collection of seven thriller short stories that form a series, each story intertwining together to build a world full of dark characters, set in a tough dystopian world. They are fast paced and action driven, with plenty of twists and surprise endings. The included stories in order: Hunger for Truth- Ethan has been kidnapped by a group of half starved renegades and its Josies mission to help rescue her son. The rescue is a success until Ethan wants to return to get the...
